

Belmont World Film
Presents

The east coast premiere of
A SEASON IN FRANCE

Monday, June 25, 7:30 PM

Studio Cinema, 376 Trapelo Road, Belmont

Tickets: $11 general admission, $9 seniors & students, at the door.

For more info and to buy your ticket in advance, click on the green button below.

Directed by Mahamat-Saleh Haroun

France, | 2017 | 100 min. | French with subtitles

In honor of World Refugee Day on June 20!

Partial proceeds benefit the Refugee & Immigrant Assistance Center (RIAC), which provides services such as refugee resettlement, asylee case management, counseling, outreach, and education to immigrants and refugees in Greater Boston.

A widower and his two young children flee their war-torn African country for France, where he falls in love with a French woman (Sandrine Bonnaire) who offers shelter for him and his family, until immigration officials come knocking. Co-presented by Africans in Boston, African Bridge Network, and Chadians in Boston.

Speaker: Fred Mbuga, a refugee from Uganda who is currently lead case manager at RIAC and a first year law student at Massachusetts School of Law.

Co-presented by the African Bridge Network and Africans in Boston.